Eugen Anicescu is the new Country Manager of Coface Romania from March 2016

Constantin Coman, Country Manager of Coface Romania, accepted a new professional challenge after an activity of almost 16 years, taking over the position of Group Director within the French Insurer in Paris.

The local management will be led from March by Eugen Anicescu, currently Managing Director of the Insurance Division.

Constantin Coman started his activity at Coface in May 2000 and he significantly contributed to the group's operations development on the Romanian market. Thus, under his management, Coface Romania registered 55% increase in turnover over the past three years. Also, the encouragement of the research activities and the company positioning as a provider of integrated services with a unique consultative approach led Coface to open two regional offices in Cluj Napoca and Timisoara.

"We faced many challenges and I know I wouldn't be able to achieve such good results without a great and solid team, with an organizational culture of leadership that has always had the client in its focus. I thank everyone, because together we've made the difference on the market, helping our partners to achieve their goals. The performances recognized also at the Group level gave me confidence in a bright future for Coface Romania.", stated Constantin Coman.

Eugen Anicescu is working for nine years in Coface Romania, in the last three years holding the Managing Director position of the Insurance Division. Along with the team, he strengthened the Coface position as a LEADER on the Romanian insurance market, coordinating the department with the largest contribution in the total turnover.

"We will grow in a sustainable way and we will focus on achieving the revenues and profitability targets by providing the best services and products. Coface has a strong team in Romania and together we will continue to develop strategic businesses and we will strengthen the company's position on both trade credit insurance and credit management services market. As experts in credit management, we are committed to support our customers for their business protection and development.", said Eugen Anicescu, Country Manager, Coface România.

Well positioned due to the achievements and the positive results registered during recent years, Coface Romania will continue to ensure long-term development and to enhance its products launched on the credit risk management market.
